

YOST & BAILL
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Yost & Baill, LLP is pleased to announce that Michelle D. Hurley and Anamarie Reyes Kolden are now Partners with the Firm.

Michelle D. Hurley joined Yost & Baill's Minneapolis, MN office in 2004, where she devotes her practice to property subrogation in the areas of product liability, construction defects, worker's compensation and catastrophic losses throughout the United States. She received her law degree from the University of Iowa College of Law and her A.B. from the University of Georgia, Athens.

Michelle is widely regarded as a leading authority in no-fault and med pay subrogation across the United States, as well as Arbitration Forums Inc.'s rules and procedures. She is licensed to practice in Minnesota State and Federal Courts, and in Iowa State Courts. Michelle has the distinction of having argued in front of the Minnesota Court of Appeals and the Minnesota Supreme Court on several occasions.

Michelle is an active member of the National Association of Subrogation Professionals (NASP), a trade organization providing subrogation education opportunities for the insurance industry. She has been a presenter at many national NASP conferences and local Chapter meetings on topics including national no-fault subrogation and arbitration.

Outside of her practice, Michelle keeps busy with her husband, Dustin, and three kids, Claire (3), Colin (1) and Eleanor (1). She was recently named 1st Vice President of Multiple Connections, a local non-profit for Mothers of Multiples.

Anamarie Reyes Kolden started her career at Yost & Baill as a legal assistant before attending law school. She joined the firm's Minneapolis, MN office as an attorney in 2003, where she devotes her practice to property subrogation losses in the areas of product liability, construction defects, and catastrophic losses throughout the United States. Anamarie received her law degree from the University of Minnesota Law School and her B.A. from the University of Minnesota College of Liberal Arts. She is licensed to practice in Minnesota State and Federal Courts, and in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin.

Anamarie was one of the first attorneys to be awarded the National Association of Subrogation Professional's (NASP) CSRPs designation. She has remained involved in NASP as a presenter of webinars and live presentations at national conferences, as well as contributing articles to the NASP Subrogator. She has also assisted in the re-writing of NASP's Certified Subrogation Recovery Specialists (CSRPs) guidebook.

Outside of her practice, Anamarie enjoys serving as a mentor to young professional women. She has most recently served as a mentor through Leaders of Today and Tomorrow (LOTT), a leadership training program for college-age and young professional women.

Yost & Baill has dedicated over 35 years to subrogation investigation and recovery

Minneapolis

2050 U.S. Bank Plaza South
220 South Sixth Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402
(612) 338-6000

Milwaukee

745 Mayfair Bank Tower
2300 North Maybank Road
Milwaukee, WI 53226
(414) 259-0600

www.yostbaill.com