Katherine C.T. Steffe is the managing attorney of Yost & Baill's Wisconsin Worker's Compensation Subrogation Group and Auto Subrogation Group. In addition to her worker's compensation and auto subrogation practice, she litigates property, and medical payments subrogation matters. Katherine enjoys the challenge her diverse subrogation practice offers and utilizes her defense litigation background to bring a unique perspective to subrogation cases. She appreciates the different facts and details which make up each case and particularly enjoys litigating cases which involve unique and complex fact patterns.

Katherine is a member of the National Association of Subrogation Professionals, and is currently serving as Co-Chair of the Iowa Chapter of NASP with Yost & Baill Associate Attorney Christopher Steffe. Their efforts in revitalizing the Iowa Chapter were recognized by NASP with a Chapter of the Year award, which was awarded at the NASP 2016 Annual Conference in Colorado Springs, CO.
