Teirney S. Christenson is the managing attorney of Yost & Baill's Wisconsin property subrogation group. In that capacity, Teirney oversees a talented team of attorneys, paralegals and legal assistants who are devoted to working with Yost & Baill's clients to develop the best possible strategy for each individual subrogation claim. As a subrogation attorney, Teirney has handled property subrogation losses (including multi-million dollar claims) involving defective products, construction defects, breach of warranty, breach of contract and a variety of negligence claims. As a true Wisconsinite, he has attended scene inspections in -30° wind chills and heat indexes over 100°.
