Prior to joining Yost & Baill, Shane worked in the public sector at the state and county levels. He joined the firm in 2017 as a paralegal supporting David Taylor's practice while he attended law school. During his time as a paralegal, Shane was exposed to a wide variety of complex claims ranging from farm machinery losses to total loss business fires.

After completing law school, Shane accepted an associate position at the firm and will focus his practice on auto and property subrogation.
